

Please allow a public and congressional debate on this change. I would like to see Freedom of Speech continue to exist in this country, but allowing Rupert Murdoch to own everything precludes that.

What is the quid pro quo for you here, Mr. Chairman? I'm really curious as to why you feel compelled to please Mr. Murdoch at the expense of the citizens of the United States.

Sincerely,
Mari LoNano